Summary Schedule of Prior Audit Find

trust for the program has increased in the region, progress continues. The program served 52 percent low-income and potential first-generation college students in program year 2003–2004, 60 percent in program year 2004–2005, and 56 percent in program year 2005–2006. Overall, this program has progressed in the number of students served. In program year 2004–2005, 186 of 312 program participants met the requirement for low-income and potential first-generation college students. In program year 2005–2006, 221 of 396 program participants met the requirement for low-income and potential first-generation college students. Increased participation among program participants resulted from partnering with personnel from the four school districts served, by working with native Alaskan village councils, and by creating opportunities that appeal to the target group. The program is on track to meet the two-thirds objective for the 2006–2007 program year.
